

Objective: Enhance our regional understanding of the value created by workforce housing in walkable neighborhoods. The conference will define workforce housing, depict its existing role within our region, and envision its application in future developments of walkable neighborhoods in our region.

Keynote Speakers

John McIlwain

*Senior Resident Fellow – Urban Land Institute
J. Ronald Terwilliger Chair for Housing*

Scott Bernstein

*President and Co-Founder
Center for Neighborhood Technology*

Friday Afternoon

Objective: Define and describe workforce housing that creates value in neighborhoods

1:30PM	Plenary Session	Workforce Housing - What Are We Talking About? John McIlwain Senior Resident Fellow – Urban Land Institute J. Ronald Terwilliger Chair for Housing
2:30 PM	Panel Discussion Moderator: Candace Klein Graydon Head & Ritchie	Workforce Housing in Our Region - How It Creates Value John McIlwain - Urban Land Institute Candace Klein - Graydon Head & Ritchie Neighborhood Advance Teams – Case Studies
3:45 PM	Break
4:00 PM	Panel Discussion Moderator: Todd Kinskey Hamilton County Regional Planning Commission	An Innovative Plan for Workforce Housing Carson Combs - City of Dublin David Dixon - Goody Clancy
5:15 PM	Cocktail Reception

Saturday Morning

Objective: Explain how workforce housing will create value in our region

8:30 AM	Plenary Session	Walkable Workforce Housing - The Big Picture Scott Bernstein - Center for Neighborhood Technology Myrita Craig - Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber Roxanne Qualls - City of Cincinnati
10:00 AM	Panel Discussion Moderator: Jeff Raser Glaserworks	Walkable Workforce Housing - Bringing It to Life Jody Robinson - City of Bellevue Bobby Maly - Model Group Peg Moertl – PNC Bank
11:30 AM	Adjourn

Cost: $20 per day.

Limited onsite registration will be available at an additional cost of $5 per day.